Excellent Service

Great customer service is one of the main reasons that Far West Roofing is at the very top of the roofing industry. That's why one of the owners will come out personally to meet with you no matter how small the job. Because they are honest they often recommend roof repairs while others are trying to sell you a new roof.

Experienced Employees

For 25 years we have provided quality roofing and repairs, because we learned early on the importance of experienced and properly trained employees. Having such a high level of workmanship allows us to provide the very best workmanship warranties on all new roof installations.

Quality Materials

Protecting your home is serious responsibility, which is why we only use quality materials in all of our roofing projects. We eat that increased cost to keep you dry and satisfied.

Our Customers Recommend Our Work!

Tom Perry

Great company! Tony was great to work with. Great with communication! The crews did an excellent job and cleaned up afterwards. Highly recommend!

John Barkiple

These guys are great! Over the course of the last 15 years, Far West Roofing installed two shingle roofs and one tarpaulin roof on my property. I wouldn't call anyone else! They're fast and tidy!
